Intimation.

O H, sound the Lyre, the Tum-Tum and the Gong!
Awake, Ye Slumbering Denizens of Hong Kong!
Professor Wheeler, Artist of renown,
From New York, Boston, San Francisco Town,
Landed in Song and Solence

And other places lunch in town.
Was now arrived with every new appliance.
Combined with those employed time immemorial.
Prepared to exercise the Art Tonsorial.
Others there are in town who ply the Shears,
Not send their trusting Victims forth in tears.
With mutilated locks their friends all stare
And ask: "Why, who the Devil cut your hair
Why allow unskilled, and long-tailed Chin
Your Head to butcher, and your Purse
"squander?"
Then, this I tell there is not a Hair Dresser.

Openly claim the title of Professor—
Sava Wheeler, who has spent his days in toil
In Chemio Research "hornt the Midnight Oil
And now by acclamation near and far
Of other Artists justly takes the Par.
Hasten, Ye Unkempt, to his gay Salon,
Frequented by the Elite and Ten!
Dread on retreat—No Noble or Parvenu
Impudently he'll "Oat"—"Shave"—or Shampoo
With Surlin Dispatch and Neatness, at a Price
It actually seems ridiculous to state;
Being no more—O Ye Mysterious Dead!
Nomenclature Fifty Cents, A Head!

Really.—No More than real
Came to the Hotel Oriental there.
Ready to Share, or Dye, or Cut your Hair
Of blessings great: benevolence the Deale
From Morn till Night, you'll find

PROFESSOR WHEELER, would respectfully attract the attention of the Hong Public to the importance of having the Hair cut and dressed in an artistic manner and Appropriate to the Individual is the cut of Hair: there can be no fixed or prevailing fashion without destroying almost universally the beauty of the tout ensemble. Indeed as directed by the contour of the human head and facial line, just peculiarities should be the trim and arrangement of the Hair. This fact is acted upon by only three Hair-Cutters who possess an independent judgment in matters of taste, cultivated and proved by incessant study and application. Chic is rare, class Professor WUHLER, humbly claims to be one, and the Only One in this Colony.

THE LATE MISS BAXTER

WE the undersigned having been designed by the late MISS BAXTER to take of her Estate and to make such arrange-as we might deem necessary in regard Orphan and their Children whom she has time to time received under her protection
the earliest opportunity of placing before community the position in which we estimate and the measures we have adopted.

It was evident to us an enquiry and action that the number of Children congregated at the two Houses, in Bonham Row, so large and the resources at her disposal limited to admit of the Children being accommodated, fed, clothed and educated.

It was accordingly decided to reduce the number of Girls and Boys to within such a limit as would, with the pecuniary assistance we might hope to receive, enable us to do to find Books, and to all retained.

In the selection of the Children to be retained we were careful to shew a preference to those who had been the greatest sufferers from disease and anxiety to the late Miss Baxter.

As a temporary measure and need, nominations from the Friends of Miss. in England, it has been arranged that kindness of the Committee and Trustees of the Diocesan Native Female Training School, Girls be received into the unoccupied their Building under the care of Miss. we guarantee to hold the Institution

The Boys retained here in a similar upon the same conditions, been transferred to Paul's College under the care of Miss recently arrived from England.

The School Master and his Wife arrived, were sent back to England by Steamer of the 29th July.

These measures enable us to surround School Houses this day and thus to effecting of about $213 per month in School Salary, House Rents and Taxes, be-

We therefore appeal to the Community confidently hope that their liberality will reimburse us this Sum, but will enable us in some measure the good work so disinterestedly respected, so deeply and so disinterestedly for her Christian labors.

on the terms, 64.
